When the author arrived in Hollywood in the early 1980s, it was still possible to make smart commercial films based on original screenplays, like Sleepless in Seattle and The Fisher King, both produced by Obst. Now, she writes, studios depend on "tentpoles" based on familiar comic books, fairy tales or video games, laden with special effects and presented in 3-D. Movies for adults can only be made as independent films with tiny budgets or with the backing of big stars and directors.
