Language and Literature - Volume 23, Number 1, Feb 01, 2014

Literary stylistics is a practice of analyzing the language of literature using linguistic concepts and categories, with the goal of explaining how literary meanings are created by specific language choices and patterning, the linguistic foregrounding, in the text. While stylistics has periodically claimed to be objective, replicable, inspectable, falsifiable and rigorous, and thus quasiscientific, subjective interpretation is an ineradicable element of such textual analysis.
