When her children went missing from their room one summer night, the police and the press were quick to point the finger at the “sex-crazed” mother. At the start of the women’s liberation movement, Alice stood for everything that threatened the status quo of how a wife and mother should behave. Now over 50 years later, we can re-examine the case and her multiple trials to see if there really was a case against Alice or if she was the victim of a witch hunt.
