Regulating Innovation: Competition Policy and Patent Law ...

The relationship between competition law and patent rights may seem inherently contradictory, but in reality it is not. Rather, both legislative devices promote dynamic competition by limiting static competition. Patent rights grant holders a headstart over their competitors by enabling them to exploit the patent for a specific duration. It is obvious that during this period the patent owner will have a monopoly and a position of dominance.

Interplay Between Competition Law And IPR In Its ...

IP and Competition Policy. Intellectual property (IP) allows consumers to make choices between competing entrepreneurs, and the goods and services they sell. Therefore, IP is inherently pro-competitive as it ensures the protection of differentiated, intangible business assets. Without IP, less efficient manufacturers and service providers would try to lure clients by copying the goods and services of more efficient competitors.
