whispered love. vocation . I think, in the broadest sense, vocation is something that all of us have: to try to live our lives to the glory of God. To grow towards the whole and best of who we are, chosen and called by God: to be called by His name, adopted into His household, and to find our dignity and honour in being His. Our lives may also bring us more specific callings, and anyway ...

"Whispers of Love" is a classic. It is one of those albums which I will listen to for years and regularly come back to. It pulls you into its world and does not let you leave. Anyone who has heard Fionnuala Gill knows that she has one of the voices of her generation, but how did she put such a great album together?
