Green Growth from Business Growth Hub

In general, smart growth invests time, attention, and resources in restoring community and vitality to center cities and older suburbs. New smart growth is more town-centered, is transit and pedestrian oriented, and has a greater mix of housing, commercial and retail uses. It also preserves open space and many other environmental amenities.

Smart Growth | US EPA

This book argues that the UK should look to America—a country that embraced urban sprawl and car dependency on a far grander scale than the UK ever did—to find answers to the problem of rapid growth and community planning. The Smart Growth America movement is steering a course toward better-designed, compact cities and rail-based transit systems, thereby restoring communities ruined by decades of suburban insularity.
