The Origins of the Modern World: A Global and ...

This third edition of The Origins of the Modern World accentuates the book's strengths especially by deepening its discussion of environmental change and of global inequality while remaining compact, highly readable, and easy to connect with contemporary concerns. Fair-minded but not bland, it has a potential to spark classroom discussion that conventional textbooks rarely have, while providing a helpful basic narrative around which to organize an appealing world history class.--

Ideal for introductory surveys of world history.--Edward L. Farmer, University of Minnesota Always the favorite when it comes to incisive world history agenda-setting, The Origins of the Modern World has a fully developed overview, one that is big on humans and the history of the environment and encourages critical thinking on a global scale.--Edmund Burke III, University of California at Santa Cruz I love this book--and more important, students do as well.
