Catcher In The Rye Answers

What does reaching for the ring represent? He let her reach the ring because according to him, you can't say no to a kid when they want to reach the ring. I think the ring represents growing up, because Holden makes it seem sort of mandatory, and since he's the catcher in the rye, he can't say no to her when she wants to grab the ring.

The boy is singing "if a body catch a body coming through the rye," a song which inspires Holden's fantasy of standing in a rye field where children are playing, keeping them from falling off a cliff. However, later, Phoebe corrects Holden that the song's actual lyrics are, "if a body meet a body coming through the rye." When Holden fantasizes about becoming "the catcher in the rye," he imagines himself preserving the innocence of childhood.
