Ethical Know-how: Action, Wisdom and Cognition

From the Confucian tradition, he draws upon the Mencius to propose an ethics of praxis, one in which ethical action is conceived as a project of being rather than as a system of judgment, less a matter of rules that are universally applicable than a goal of expertise, sagehood.

Ethical Know-How: Action, Wisdom, and Cognition: Varela ...

In the short space of only 75 pages, Varela turns on its head most of today's common sense about where ethical behavior comes from, how we prepare for ethical action, and how wise and ethical people learn to be that way. The exploration Varela reports in the three lectures reproduced here are based on recent biological evidence.
