The Black Atheist In America

This conservatism helped give rise to an increasingly vocal and influential group of African Americans – the new black atheists. Who are the new black atheists and what is behind their recent growth? First, let's briefly look at the 'old' black atheists. As long as people have proclaimed the existence of God, others have rejected the idea of a deity. Among African Americans, the earliest evidence of atheism and agnosticism comes from 19th-century slave narratives.
