Plan of Action (Top 001a) If you are just starting out making your own patterns, it helps to first outline a Plan of Action rather than just diving in. The plan of action consists of looking at the Flat and any specification and making notes about what needs to be done, such as: determining many pattern pieces the design requires.

Plan of Action - Dress Patternmaking

Overview of Top 001 (A to D) The four tops in this series are quite simple as far as drafting the pattern goes. (Three of them are finished off with bias binding, so whether or not you consider that simple as far as sewing goes is another matter entirely). I am starting off with tops that are easy to draft and that put in practice some very basic patternmaking principles; mainly manipulating darts (Tops C & D), button extension (Tops B & C), and adding in a design line (Top D).
