Iain Rob Wright owns this genre. At first I was skeptical. For years I was obsessed with King, Koontz, Rice, James Patterson , Douglas Preston and Lincoln Child. So when I saw he was offering 5 free books, I didn't think much. I was wrong. I am so hooked to Wright's stories. Sea Sick was one of the best Zombie/Apocalypse books I've ever read.

Would you consider the audio edition of Sea Sick to be better than the print version? I only say yes because of Nigel Patterson. He is likely the BEST narrator I have experienced. He provides an experience not a reading. He breathes life into the story. What did you like best about this story? It keeps moving, Iain ensures it doesn't snag.
