The Founders' Key is a powerful call to rediscover the connection between these two mighty documents, and thereby restore our political faith and revive our free institutions.

The Founders' Key: The Divine and Natural Connection ...

The Founders' Key presents our early documents as not only being our inheritance, but laying upon us a series of claims, an obligation to obey it's absolute and fixed meaning, and fulfill the obligations it demands of us as citizens. Exploring the connection between the Declaration and the Constitution, this work will state the case for why these documents have universal and timeless claims-and why the claims of relativism and relevancy have no impact upon them. 226 pages, softcover.
