Caminos - AbeBooks

My only issue with the third edition of Caminos is the excess of junk not directly related to the spanish language. It almost seems to have a hidden political motive of pushing the Hispanic agenda on english speaking Americans. The stories are cute but dont really do much to help teach the language. They just slow things down a lot.

I have recently published the long-awaited 3rd edition of my Camino Preparation Handbook! " My original intention wasn't actually to write a book, but instead to maintain a camino blog, which gradually expanded from just diary entries to practical information after learning the ropes through trial and error on many different caminos over the years. As the topics and information expanded and after a considerable amount of blood, sweat and tears (not to mention money), a peregrina friend of ...
