In the sport of Australian rules football, each of the eighteen players in a team is assigned to a particular named position on the field of play. These positions describe both the player's main role and by implication their location on the ground. As the game has evolved, tactics and team formations have changed, and the names of the positions and the duties involved have evolved too.

Australian rules football positions - Wikipedia

There are very few one position players in AFL football - the ability to play multiple positions is vital in AFL football. Post-Game - A proper warm down is vital.
