Rich Church, Poor Church: Keys to Effective Financial ...

This book distilled much of what was said in the author's other books. This book is more helpful in two ways: 1. Instead of providing a list of best practices and why they are best practices, this book makes comparisons between a Rich Church and a Poor Church and how the financial practices of each are shaped, 2. this book provides discussion questions after each chapter and would be great to ...

Rich Church, Poor Church: Keys to Effective Financial ...

Are you in a rich church or a poor church? Don't answer too quickly. A rich church, Christopher contends, focuses on mission rather than survival, compelling communication rather than fact communication, debt principal rather than debt payments, asking versus not asking, humility rather than arrogance, high expectations rather than low expectations, knowing the facts on your donors rather than guessing, being transformational in talk rather than obligatory, and pastors taking the lead.
