Quimper Pottery A Guide To Origins Styles And Values

Quimper Faience refers to a fine grain earthenware decorated with an opaque, tin-based glaze. Each piece is completely hand painted without the use of decal or stencil by one of 48 painters (all but 4 are women). The majority of the patterns are painted on top of the raw glaze, which is a formidable process. Signed by the artist and completely painted by one person from start to finish, it reflects the individual touches which make each piece unique.

HISTORY & MARKS ON QUIMPER POTTERY FROM FRANCE

Reality: genuine pieces of Quimper pottery were produced using the Henriot mark for many, many years beyond 1968. Confused? The explanation is because when the Henriot factory went out of business, the HB factory purchased the rights to their molds, designs and marks and reorganized as Les Faïenceries de Quimper. To avoid confusing the existing customers of both enterprises, separate work areas and production lines were established and maintained.
