Sermon Topic #2) The church is an essential part of the Lord's plan, for now and forever. And we are most definitely not referring just to your local congregation. As important as that is — this will come as a surprise to a lot of lonely myopic pastors — the Kingdom of God is more than your church.

7 Powerful Sermon Topics Pastors Should Put On Repeat

Though many design models exist, I recommend structuring your sermon using a broad framework of a story. Storytelling is one of the oldest forms of communication known to man. Often simple yet poignant, stories have a way of communicating ideas that are memorable and transformative. Stories move us, shape us, and change us.
