Simply put, it's harder for you to let go of things you believe you've invested in, even when those things are shit, causing you to feel shitty, or producing shitty results in your life. Step 2: Get ALL your shit together. Now that you know why you want to get your shit together, make a list of all the things that are not working in your life. Literally look at all the shit that's not working, write it out and put all your shit in one place.
