The Center for Migration, Gender, and Justice (CMGJ) is a non-profit non-governmental organization that addresses human rights at the intersection of migration and gender. Our goal is to shrink spaces between migrant communities and governing bodies. We believe that gender justice beyond borders necessitates shared agency, representation, and accountability in protecting human rights for all.

The Center for Migration, Gender, and Justice

This programme provides a comprehensive introduction to understanding contemporary research on global migrations and social justice. Unique in Scotland, it addresses questions such as who moves and why, who is allowed to settle and where, what are the roles of states, institutions and civil societies in these processes.

Contemporary scholarship on gender and migration has focused on the constitution of gender in the macro context by analyzing the ways gender informs the political economy of migration. Focusing on the meso level, a larger group of scholars has interrogated how migration reshapes gender relations and accordingly the position of men and women in institutions such as the migrant family.
