The Book Of Lies Mary

The Book of Lies is the debut novel of Mary Horlock. It's an intriguing novel that links two stories - one from the past and one present. It sheds plenty of insight into a time past on the small island of Guernsey and how that history weaves back into the present time. Is Cat Rozier a murderer? Well, she thinks so.

The Book of Lies by Mary Horlock is written in chapters that alternate between the present with Catherine Rozier in 1984-5 and the past during the German occupation of Guernsey during WWII and her uncle Charles Roziers story. Like her uncle, Cat is a liar.

The Book of Lies by Mary Horlock - Goodreads

The Book of Lies tells two alternating stories that took place on the island of Guernsey. One is that of Cat, an intelligent 15 year old girl in 1985, who killed her best friend Nic, the popular golden girl and new arrival on the island. Once best friends, a betrayal and cruelty from Nicolette sends them far apart from each other.

The Book of Lies is really two books in one, for it skillfully interweaves the story of teenager Catherine or Cat, and her Uncle, local historian Charles. The book as far as Cat is concerned is set in the mid 1980's, whereas Charles the Uncle tells his story from the mid 60's, looking back to the German occupation of the island, a period of Guernsey history about which few books exist.

The Book of Lies - Wikipedia

This is the second book of The Series Deadly Lies By Mary Stone & Bella Cross! In my opinion Kylie & Linc Character was so much more Mature and the intensity of Emotion for one another was Realistic. We were able to learn more of Linc PTSD and how it affects him in his Mind, Emotion, and his Relationship with Others..

Deadly Lies (Kylie Hatfield #2) by Mary

Stone

Mary Horlock's The Book of Lies is a brilliant book about truth, peer pressure, and, above all, the culture of complicity and white washing that both allows and necessitates secrets and lies. Fifteen-year-old Cat lives on Guernsey, a self-proclaimed "SMALL PARADISE," where people convince themselves that nothing bad can ever happen and even the Nazi occupation is considered to have been "character building."

Review: The Book of Lies, Mary Horlock | Literary Treats

I didn't, but having read The Book of Lies, I now know. There were four of them actually. And it's highly appropriate that Cat be the one who told me about this. She is the narrator of Mary Horlock's debut novel, and she is all about unearthing horrors. She comes by it honestly.

The Book of Lies by Mary Horlock | LibraryThing

From bestselling Australian author Mary-Anne O'Connor comes another fun and intriguing Australian historical drama, Where Fortune Lies, which tells a multi-layered story of people seeking their fortunes in colonial Australia. 1879, Ireland.
