Half The Church Recapturing Gods

Half the Church: Recapturing God's Global Vision for Women is another book on women, but from a different perspective. It covers two major areas: The loss that occurs when women believe there are limits on how God will use them.

Half the Church: Recapturing God's Global Vision for Women ...

Half the Church is an inspirational read. In chapter 8, James does an excellent job of describing the conundrum women face as they step into church with the intention to serve God with everything they are. But the rest of her book lifts our eyes above that debate to the enormous need and opportunity that is presented to the church around the world.

Half the Church “When half the church holds back — whether by choice or because we have no choice — everybody loses and our mission suffers setbacks. Tragically, we are squandering the opportunity to display to an embattled world a gospel that causes both men and women to flourish and unites us in a Blessed Alliance that only the presence of Jesus can explain.”
