Hard Rock, itself, posted some catchy recruiting ads with headlines that included, "Not Working Here Must Really Suck." Such headlines help to quickly and cleverly convey to potential employees the culture of the brand. In creating Hard Rock's training manuals, Knight said, he eliminated as many words as possible and focused on the visuals.

Claude Chastagner (Author of De La Culture Rock)

It has its roots in 1940s' and 1950s' rock and roll, itself heavily influenced by blues, rhythm and blues and country music. Rock music also drew strongly on a number of other genres such as electric blues and folk, and incorporated influences from jazz, classical and other musical sources.

Rock music | Pop Culture Wiki | Fandom

Rock and roll was a guitar-based sound with a strong (if loose) beat that drew equally on African American and white traditions from the southern United States, on blues, church music, and country music. Presley's rapid rise to national stardom revealed the new cultural and economic power of both teenagers and teen-aimed media—records, radio, television, and motion pictures.
