British conservatism and trade unionism, 1945-1964 - CORE

Conservatives at Work, formerly Conservative Trade Unionists, is an organisation within the British Conservative Party made up of Conservative-supporting trade unionists. It played an important role in expanding the party's membership and influence, particularly in Britain's industrial regions. By building support within trade unions, the party contributed to the reduction of the power and influence of the left.

Targeting the working class became a priority for the party, motivated by the idea t
