Max Contraction Training The Scientifically

One of the principles of the Max Contraction Training system comes from something written by Arthur Jones in the 1970s: "It should be plain that the muscle could be in no position except its shortest, fully-contracted position if all the muscle fibers were contracted at the same time; the individual fibers must grow shorter in order to perform work, and if all of the fibers were shortened at the same time, then the muscle as a whole would have to be in a position of full contraction - no ...
