In Michelle Ray's author's note, she says this, "My purpose in writing Falling for Hamlet, besides entertaining myself in asking the many 'what if' questions, was the hope that readers would become more interested in Hamlet". I can honestly say, that in my opinion, she succeeded in reaching that goal.

This is a great book! This story keeps true to the plot of Hamlet, while at the same time making it fresh and new. It gives us a glimpse of what life might be like for modern young royals (and their non-royal friends), and lets us in on behind the scenes action. I think this is a "must read" for every high schooler. Great job Michelle Ray!
