The main character, Edward, is 39 years old and happens to have Asperger's Syndrome and OCD. In this touching story, we get a glimpse into a 25-day period (600 hours), of Edward's life. It is the story of a challenging father/son relationship, but it is also a coming of age story in a sense, of how change affects Edward's life.

600 Hours of Edward (Edward, #1) by Craig Lancaster

600 Hours of Edward is (like Edward himself) witty, heartwarming and challenging. I read somewhere that the author, Craig Lancaster, said that 'Edward often had his own ideas about things' regardless of his authorial intentions; I love the idea that Edward took on a life of his own during writing.

As the title states, it's 600 hours - 25 days in Edwards life, it's the day to day accounts on this man's life. It may sound boring, but he does have Asperger's and OCD, so every day, he repeats his activities, but it's the anecdotes - his comments, his thoughts that make this story so great. So much so, for me I want more

Edward Stanton is 38, has OCD and Asberger's syndrome and he copes with his life by having order and routine. Until, over the 600 hours in the title, his life changes in many ways, not least of which he makes friends with the lady across the street and her son. This is a charming read, and I found Edward to be an excellent narrator of his story.

600 Hours Of Edward would have to be the most enjoyable book that I have read. It takes very few pages to become emotionally attached to Edward. He is a functioning aspergers sufferer with severe OCD. Somehow using his strict routine he manages to get through the day. Not always without incident though.
