Dementia Diary A Carers Friend

Each of our audio diaries is a personal record of our journey with dementia. You can listen to our voices and read the transcript. The thoughts and experiences shared here chart the frustrations and opportunities that arise from living with the many different forms of dementia that we have between us. They are shared with you in the hope that our honesty will help to inform the way you engage with those living with the condition – as friends, family, service providers and decision-makers.
