Follow their journey on Washington's World Interactive Map . The Washington brothers sailed about September 19, 1751. The precise date is not clear, because George Washington's Barbados diary-- the chief source of information about the trip-- is badly mutilated. The brothers apparently sailed on the Success, a small trading sloop. The voyage, the only long sea voyage of Washington's life, took more than six weeks on what George Washington called the "fickle & Merciless Ocean" (a flight from ...
