Life With Picasso Francoise Gilot

The young artist Francoise Gilot met Pablo Picasso in 1943 when she was 21 and he 61. She became his lover and muse. They lived together for 10 years without marrying, but the union produced a son and daughter because he said he loved children and would always take care of them. This is her memoir of those years.

Life with Picasso by Franoise Gilot - Goodreads

For nearly a decade, the author, Francoise Gilot, shared her life with this greatest artist of modern times, giving birth to two of his children. In her recollections, she describes the exuberant, if exhausting world they knew together - a world lit by Picasso's genius, threatened by his moods, and made glowingly alive on these pages.

Life with Picasso: Francoise Gilot, Carlton Lake ...

This book is very interesting, especially because the author, Francoise Gilot is an artist herself, so she relates to Picasso as her lover, mentor and a great artist. She quotes much of certain conversations they had about art which offers new insights into Picasso himself as well as into her, and their creative thoughts about art.

Life After Picasso: Françoise Gilot | Vogue

Marie Françoise Gilot is a French painter, best known for her long, stormy relationship with Pablo Picasso, with whom she had two children. Gilot was already launched as an accomplished artist, notably in watercolours and ceramics, but her professional career was eclipsed by her social celebrity, and when she split from Picasso, he discouraged galleries from buying her work, as well as unsuccessfully trying to block her memoir, Life with Picasso.
