The Digest Of Roman Law

The Digest, also known as the Pandects, is a name given to a compendium or digest of juristic writings on Roman law compiled by order of the Byzantine emperor Justinian I in the 6th century CE. It is divided into 50 books. The Digest was part of a reduction and codification of all Roman laws up to that time, which later came to be known as the Corpus Juris Civilis. The other two parts were a collection of statutes, the Codex, which survives in a second edition, and an introductory textbook, the
