The Dynamics Of Public Relations

Public relations is variously defined: those within the PR sector tend to view their activities as having strategic and corporate impact, while many marketers classify PR as little more than a tactical ingredient of the promotional mix. This contrast is important, given marketers are heavy users of PR activity.

The Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) released a modernized definition of PR in 2012 that states, “Public relations is a strategic communication process that builds mutually beneficial relationships between organizations and their publics” (PRSA Staff, 2012). In order to build these mutually beneficial relationships with publics, most corporations and larger companies enlist the support of external PR agencies to help the in-house team handle the demands of the job.
