I was recently sent a copy of Jim Malusa's new book," Into Thick Air – Biking to the Bellybutton of Six Continents " and asked to review it. I happily accepted and had the great pleasure of reading the book during the first two months of my 2009 European bicycle adventure. In this 336-page book, the author sets out not to travel to the highest points in the world (as many mountaineers and climbers aim to do), but instead to ride his bike to the lowest points on six of the seven ...
