At the end of one episode, "A Peaceful Day", when Zebedee called his catchphrase of "Time for bed.", Florence asked

"Already?", and Zebedee replied that "It's nearly time for the news, and you've had enough magic for one day." The news was broadcast just after The Magic Roundabout.

The Magic Roundabout - Wikipedia

"Time For Bed", illustrated by Jane Dyer, is a special book I imagine parents reading to infants, toddlers, and beyond; a warm part of tucking-in that families would cherish. It is brief enough to always fit in; a thematic, soothing tradition.

Time for Bed by Mem Fox - Goodreads

I enjoyed that "Time for Bed" was dark and full of black humor and real life. I enjoyed that it was in no way a love story, not a typical relationship between the main heroes. I enjoyed the easy narration of the main hero, his dark thoughts and jokes and I think that this book is definitely a fine debut!

Becoming a parent is an incredible, exciting, exhausting adventure. Time for Bed Baby celebrates the bond between parent and child and the simple pleasures of the bedtime ritual whilst also recognising the need for mums to take time out to look after themselves.
