A presumption of guilt is any presumption within the criminal justice system that a person is guilty of a crime, for example a presumption that a suspect is guilty unless or until proven to be innocent. Such a presumption may legitimately arise from a rule of law or a procedural rule of the court or other adjudicating body which determines how the facts in the case are to be proved, and may be either rebuttable or irrebuttable. An irrebuttable presumption of fact may not be challenged by the def

Presumption of guilt - Wikipedia

A presumption of guilt and dangerousness makes people of color vulnerable to racial violence, wrongful convictions, and unfair treatment. EJI director Bryan Stevenson discusses how the presumption that people of color are guilty and dangerous is a legacy of our history. The repeated shootings of unarmed Black men by police and vigilantes and the widespread mistreatment of people of color in our criminal justice system are a manifestation of deep-seated racial bias that has been nurtured in ...
