Pastoral Care. In a large church the best way of giving and receiving love and care is to belong to a mid-week small group. We recognise that sometimes we need to talk to someone outside of our closer relationships or we might be aware of someone who needs help and they are not in a small group. Richard Knowles (Assistant Pastor) can arrange for the right kind of care for different individual situations and will be able to refer on to others who will be able to listen, pray and support.
