St. Paul thus teaches that Christian marriage becomes a sacrament ("a great mystery") showing forth openly what is contained in the mystery of Christ's love.

The relation between husband and wife both participates in and reflects the relation between Christ and his Church.

Marriage: Sacrament of Enduring Love

True love is fruitful, but this fruitfulness is not only expressed through children; it can also be manifested through hospitality, through service, and sometimes through a common creation. The Sacrament of Love is a unique reflection on marriage, as well as on monastic and non-monastic celibacy. It places the relationship of man and woman within the context of the most perfect relationship of persons: the Trinitarian communion of the Divine Persons.
