Reviewed in the United States on December 18, 2017. Jen Williams' The Iron Ghost is the much-anticipated (by many) follow-up to The Copper Cat. It is a sequel only in that it includes most of the same characters, in the same world, though it doesn't necessarily follow-up on an 'unfinished' story.

Amazon.com: Customer reviews: The Iron Ghost (The Copper Cat)

"The Iron Ghost is a fun, fast-paced read." – Astounding Yarns "The Copper Cat series has so far proved, with two books to date, to be both entertaining and memorable. It's a fresh set of stories and characters in a genre that sees so much of the same done over and over again; its inventiveness and diversity is impressive and distinctive."

The Iron Ghost (The Copper Cat #2) | IndieBound.org

The Iron Ghost is a strong sequel to The Copper Promise. We have the necessary development of the main characters, whom I have grown to like quite a fair bit. Then there are higher stakes at hand and expanded worldbuilding. And to top it all off, a whole lot more magic is involved in the storytelling.

The Iron Ghost (The Copper Cat, #2)

The second installment of The Copper Cat finds our heroes in a more conventional narrative for a full-length novel (the first in the series was more episodic in nature).The characters have been well established and the world fleshed out so Williams instead pushes the characters even further into challenging situations making The Iron Ghost darker than its predecessor.
