The New Testament View Of

The New Testament view of the nature and character of the Old Testament is suggested in Heb.1.1, 2: "God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets by divers portions and in divers manners, hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in a Son."

The New Testament view of the Old Testament

New Testament authors were steeped in Old Testament imagery, prophecies, and writing styles as they carried forward the story of the Hebrew Bible. The New Testament is not a whole "new" story; rather, it's a continuation of the biblical story introduced in the Old Testament. The Old Testament, also known as the Hebrew Bible, tells an incomplete story about God and Israel and their continual failings to be the people God calls them to be.
