Ground handling The use of standard ground support equipment (GSE) and servicing procedures was taken into account very early in the design of the A380. Today, there is a large choice of A380 compatible GSE and this list is still growing. In 2013 we added the GHH AM 500XL to the list of A380 qualified Towbar Less Towing Vehicle (TLTV).

The Airbus A380: Inspiring ground support

Handling the A380 on the ground requires one additional catering truck (serving the upper deck directly) and one additional cleaning vehicle. So the number of pieces of equipment is similar, as is the overall layout. This is no coincidence; ground operation activities were taken into account during the early stages of the design of the A380.
