Radiance (Wraith Kings #1) by Grace Draven. CHAPTER ONE. Today was Ildiko's wedding day, and if she managed not to retch on herself or a guest, she'd consider the entire event a resounding success. Her maids refused to meet her gaze while they laced her into her gown and twitched the train into perfect folds, but she'd caught their looks of pity mixed with horror from the corner of her eye.

In 'Radiance' the couple's agreement results in a loyal friendship and then keeps evolving into something more. The cultural differences are key to this lovely book, but there is also adventure and a touching romance. I enjoyed the humour too as Ildiko uses her 'scary ghost' looks to tease her Kai companions.
