A History Of Postcards A

History of postcards Tracing back the origins of the picture postcard is difficult because postcards were not simply invented — instead, they evolved. Their history is inevitably linked with the development of the postal service, but also features innovations in printing and photography, daring proposals... and even a 300-meter tower!

The history of the postcard - 150 years of postcards

When the world's first postcard appeared in Austria in 1869 and in Britain a year later. The picture postcard began to appear a few years later and during the Paris Exhibition of 1889 they received a big boost in popularity as a means of sending messages. It triggered off a craze for postcard collecting and caught the public's imagination, so much so in fact that in their heyday between 1890-1920, they even took the place of traditional family photo albums.
