To the progressive couples of that time, marriage was a stuffy, old institution and they wanted no part of it. But, because they were living as a couple, they wanted the legal benefits and protections of being a couple, which included property rights, parental rights, social welfare rights, and so on.

Same-sex marriage: right or social change? - David Werdiger

Marriage in community of property by default. By default, couples are married in community of property if they marry without an antenuptial contract. And as such, the estates of both spouses are joined together and both spouses have equal rights with respects to their joint estate. They also both have claim to half of the joint estate.
