The Jungle was a portable game console in development by Panasonic, and announced in October 2010. With a design being roughly similar to a small laptop, it was developed as a portable platform for MMOs and aimed at players who wanted to play online games on the go. The Jungle was also Panasonic's first attempt at creating a handheld console. It was expected to be released in mid-2011, effectively putting it into the eighth generation of gaming along with the Nintendo 3DS and the then-unreleased

The Panasonic handheld allows the user to hold the device in a much more neutral position when they are scanning and because the scanning part of the device is angled it means that you don't have to tilt the device every time to read the screen, you can just hold it in one position. This also helps for scanning in different positions.
