imperium by

Imperium is a sly commentary on colonialism, as well as on German mores and ways, domestically and abroad. A fairly short novel, despite Engelhardt's grand ambitions -- and despite Kracht allowing his protagonist to survive another World War --, Imperium seems to dabble in too many areas, without ever settling down in the substantial. There's a lot that appeals here, a lot that's clever (and, more often, sly), but it also feels a bit too flighty.
