Charlemagne Derek Wilson

Wilson's "Charlemagne A Biography" is perhaps the most deceptively titled non-fiction book I have come across. While the work does contain a biography of Charlemagne, this covers only approximately half the book. (Charlemagne does not appear until page 25 and dies on page 131 of 203.)

Charlemagne by Derek Wilson - Goodreads

"Charlemagne" tells the story of the life and legacy of one of the great kings in Medieval Europe. Wilson creates an interesting picture of the Dark Ages and of one of the founding fathers of modern Europe. He combines the main events in the life of Charles the Great with anecdotes from contemporaries and a general explanation of Medieval society.
