If you are coordinating any kind of judging for a baking contest or cook-off, it is essential that you and your judges are using a standardized judging rubric. Creating a form for judges to score each contestant's offering into a food contest will ensure a fair, accurate, and reputable judging process. When crafting a form that will be used to judge any sort of food competition, there are a number of obvious (and some not-so-obvious) categories that should be used.
