The Melody Lingers on is a fine, light read. That is: no tingling, no real suspense. With many of her other books, I felt an urgency to read forsaking every thing else. This book I read when I found the time. Enough said. I hope she keeps writing and I will keep reading because I am used to her work, find it easy to read and want to be mildly entertained. The Madoff theme of this book is old ...

Was The Melody Lingers On worth the listening time? I listen in my car while driving to/from work. When the book finished, I got out of my car and began ranting and raving about how frustrated I was about the women portrayed in this book. If they weren't portrayed as a b*tch, they were meek little women who rely on men and don't have a back-bone. Where have all the strong, intelligent women ...
