'Faithful Witness' in the Bible

Because we serve a Savior who is faithful and true. He is called the faithful witness, the true one, the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the holy and true one, the just and true one, and one day the heavens will open, and all the world will behold, one sitting on a white horse and He is called Faithful and True and He will bring every Word God has promised us to pass.

The Faithful and True Witness - Faithlife Sermons

“Witnesses” (and “witnessing”) is the vocation of the Christian. We are to tell the truth about the Lord Jesus Christ, who is “the true and faithful witness” (Revelation 3:14). The text before us morning provides ample testimony to this description. In this passage, we have a contrast between a true witness and false witness.
