Am I entitled to a job description and when should it be produced? It is good practice, but not a legal requirement, for your employer to give you a detailed job description. However, the written statement of particulars , which your employer must give you within one month of starting work, must contain the title and/or a brief description of your job.

Am I entitled to a job description and when should it be ...

Some insurance policies, such as short-term income protection, will replace a proportion of your income for a fixed period when you lose your job. However, don't buy a new policy if you know that you are likely to lose your job, as it's unlikely that you'll be able to make a claim.
